TO THE SILK PURSE

Mission

The West Van Community Arts Council at the Silk Purse is a multi-disciplinary arts center dedicated to finding, developing and presenting new artistic creations from a diversity of cultures and points of view, providing emerging and established artists an environment that encourages exploration, innovation & originality.

History

The West Van Arts Council-Silk Purse is a not-for-profit arts center, established in 1968, serving all aspects of the visual art and performance community. Over the past 15 years, the small house on the waterfront has become one of the city's leading arts institutions, an esteemed presenter of classical and jazz performances and a home to countless emerging visual artists.

If finding that unique piece of art, enjoying laughter with friends or hearing a new piece of music for the first time is a thrill, be sure to come and join us at the Silk Purse, with its vibrant artists and musicians, stunning views and infectious creative energy. We warmly welcome you and hope you return again and again! All our upcoming programs and events are on our website at: www.silkpurse.ca

FROM THE SILK ROAD

In 1271 Marco Polo began a journey that would last 24 years and take him more than 24,000 miles, from Italy, through the bleak deserts and the rugged mountains of the Middle East and Central Asia, to China and the court of Kubilai Khan. The route of this journey became known as the Silk Road. Although we do not have 24 years to explore Italy, the Middle East and Central Asia, we do hope to celebrate and embrace our cultural diversity with a series of art exhibits, music concerts and children's events from March through May, as we celebrate our 40th anniversary here at the Silk Purse Arts Centre.

In the next few months, as a visitor to the Silk Purse, you will explore many wonderful sights, sounds, and tastes from the lands traveled by Marco Polo. You can explore some of them during our, "The Silk Road Meets at the Silk Purse" journey throughout March, April & May. You will enjoy visual art, music, dance, food and even find information and activities that will enrich your cultural experience on your visit.
